WHAT IS THE PROGRAM OBJECTIVE?

The Institute program is designed around our motto: You can't lead the people if you don't love the people. You can't save the people if you won't serve the people. We are interested in meeting and training young leaders who want to develop their individual leadership potential and use their gifts and talents to positively impact the world. The workshops on project planning, youth advocacy, volunteerism and civic engagement are designed with that motto in mind. Additionally, because we believe education is an important part of leadership, we will offer sessions related to college admissions and planning.
